

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

CHRISTOPHER M. SANDERS,

Plaintiff,

v.

JEFF PUGH and DR. SEARS,

Defendants.

ORDER

11-cv-202-slc

Plaintiff Christopher Sanders is proceeding in this case on his claim that defendants Jeff Pugh and Dr. Sears violated his rights under the Eighth Amendment by exhibiting deliberate indifference to his serious medical needs and defendant Sears violated his rights under the First Amendment by retaliating against him.. On July 25, 2011, defendant filed a document titled “Motion for Summary Judgment.” However, plaintiff’s motion fails to comply with this court’s summary judgment procedures, a copy of which was mailed to the parties (attached to the preliminary pretrial conference order) on or about July 20, 2011. Accordingly, defendant’s motion will be denied without prejudice at this time.

If plaintiff wishes, he may redraft his motion, along with a brief in support and proposed findings of fact in a manner that follows the court’s procedures. In addition, to be admissible as evidence, any exhibits he submits must be “authenticated.” This means that the documents must be accompanied by an affidavit from a person who swears (or affirms) that he has personal knowledge that the exhibits are true and correct copies of the documents they appear to be. An extra copy of the court’s summary judgment procedures will be enclosed with this order.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff Christopher Sanders' motion for summary judgment, dkt. 15, is DENIED without prejudice to plaintiff refiling his motion later, following the procedures that are explained in the pretrial conference order and the court's procedure governing summary judgment.

Entered this 29th day of July, 2011.
